The night starts right

★ FREE UNLIMITED DRINKS UNTIL 1:00 AM · FREE GUESTLIST UNTIL 2:00 AM · SKIP THE LINE

1 COFFEE IN THE GÒTIC QUARTER

Start the day with a slow morning in El Born or Barri Gòtic. Find a terrace, grab a cortado and soak in the medieval atmosphere before the night ahead.

2 VISIT THE MOCO MUSEUM

The immersive Moco Museum is one of Barcelona's most talked-about experiences. Banksy, Basquiat, and cutting-edge digital art. Book tickets in advance — queues can be long.

BOOK AHEAD

3 SUNSET AT BUNKERS DEL CARME

Climb to the Turó de la Rovira for the best 360° panoramic view of Barcelona at golden hour. Bring drinks, arrive early for a good spot, and watch the city light up below.

INSIDER

4 PRE-GAME DRINKS IN THE EIXAMPLE

Head to the Eixample for cocktails before the club. Dry Martini, Paradiso, or the rooftop bars around Passeig de Gràcia set the perfect tone for the night.

"Otto Zutz has been the address where Barcelona dresses up to dance for decades. Three floors, one legendary night."

Saturday

The longest night

1 MORNING AT PARK GÜELL

Spend the morning at Antoni Gaudí's iconic Park Güell. Book your timed-entry ticket in advance to skip the line and enjoy the mosaic terraces and city views in peace.

BOOK AHEAD

2 LUNCH AT EL NACIONAL

Barcelona's most spectacular dining space — four restaurants under one roof inside a converted 1889 industrial venue. Catalan cuisine, pintxos, seafood and cocktails all in one place.

3 VISIT SAGRADA FAMÍLIA

Barcelona's ultimate must-see. The towers are now complete and the interior is breathtaking. Book tickets with skip-the-line access — this is non-negotiable on a Saturday.

BOOK AHEAD

4 PRE-PARTY IN POBLE SEC

Carrer de Blai for pintxos, Bar Calders for vermouth. The Poble Sec neighbourhood is the city's best-kept secret for a relaxed pre-party atmosphere before the club.

INSIDER

"Twenties is Saturday in Barcelona at its finest — low lights, loud music and the best crowd in the city."

Sunday

The golden close

1 CABLE CAR TO MONTJUÏC

Take the Teleféric de Montjuïc for panoramic views of the city and port from the sky. The castle at the top is free to walk around and the views are unbeatable on a clear day.

RECOMMENDED

2 BEACH TIME — BARCELONETA OR BOGATELL

Barceloneta is the iconic beach, Bogatell is the local favourite — quieter and less touristy. Either way, the Mediterranean on a Sunday morning is hard to beat.

3 VERMOUTH IN THE RAVAL

Bar Marsella, Casa Almirall or Zelig for Sunday vermouth. The Raval has exactly the right energy for the last afternoon of the weekend — relaxed, warm, and full of character.

INSIDER

4 FLAMENCO SHOW · A DIFFERENT SIDE OF BCN

Sunday is the perfect night for a flamenco show. Tablao Cordobés or El Palau Dalmases offer intimate performances that showcase a completely different face of the city.

"Sunday is Barcelona's best-kept secret. KU turns it into the night nobody wants to end."
